

Invest In Success Program Details

Upcoming Programs in 2025:

- February 12-13
- September 9-10

We want all FP&M employees to be the best they can be. To provide development opportunities for our non-supervisor staff, FP&M Leadership is bringing APPA's new Invest in Success training program to UW-Madison.

The Invest in Success program will train front-line staff how to be effective and productive individuals and contributors to the team and institution, drive staff members to achieve success in their roles, and achieve the strategic goals of their institution. The program is designed to address the critical knowledge and skills all individual contributors need for success including communication, relationship building and problem solving.

This is a full two-day training.

Objectives

- Lead as an individual contributor by developing the interpersonal skills that make you an invaluable asset to your team and organization
- Demonstrate effective communication skills
- Identify strategies and actions for working effectively with others
- Maximize individual strengths for successful outcomes

Participant Take-Aways from Past Sessions

Make sure everyone on the team has a voice

Mitigating bias

How to be an active listener

"We before Me"

Empowering oneself

Transparency- be honest

Our perspective is not the only truth

Positivity is contagious

Watching body language

Confidence in your decisions

Lead by example

Be aware of your triggers

Learning to listen

Self-awareness, set goals, and measure success
